

Universal Dash-Mount

Use on Dash Windshield

The hassle free Naztech N2000 Universal Car Dash-Mount is the most convenient way to fit your electronics within reach. Adaptable with most applications, this extremely portable product uses high tech anti-skid materials to create a solid mounting base that works with any surfaces, while keeping your device from sliding. With its clever swivel-head, users can change between portrait and landscape position. As an added feature, the suction mount can also be attached to the windshield. Keep your hands on the wheel and eyes on the road.
